LOT 316

A Victorian silver and ivory page turner, the handle carved in the form of a gentleman wearing a long coat and hat, London 1881 by Sampson Mordan & Co, total length 33cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

316. Few tiny and minor nicks to edge of page turner. Maker's mark on blade a bit smudged, other hallmarks clear. Cracks to ivory figure, 2 small chips to brim of hat which looks as though it has been reduced/re-carved to hide other damage at the front.
