Condition Report

47. Some overpainting, touching-in some scuffs to the surface. These are mostly to the water but a few areas to the sky and to the central standing figure. These have been neatly done but are visible under close inspection. There are a few minor spots of foxing. Probably slightly faded but colours still generally good. Some minor age toning. Mount and backing are not archival. Oak frame with some soiling and just starting to separate at joint. Provenance: consigned from a local deceased estate.
