LOT 4039

An early 20th century oak rectangular dining table, probably by Heal & Son, raised on chamfered block legs united by block and platform stretchers, height 75cm, length 183cm, depth 76cm.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

4039. The top is slightly water marked and worn in places so could do with a polish. Some very slight gapping to the wood at the ends and some minor wear overall. Otherwise in generally good order.
