

Arts and Crafts Metalwork and Applied Art / Friday, 7th September 2018 / Lot 4053

LOT 4053

A late 19th/early 20th century Arts and Crafts copper mantel timepiece of longcase clock form, probably Keswick School, the shaped case finely worked with hearts, trailing vines and ascending plants, fitted with a brass cylinder movement by 'The British United Clock Co Ld', height 24cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

4053. Small dent to top panel, some leaded repairs around the plinth corners and edges. The square hood has been pressed down slightly on the trunk but otherwise some minor scuffs and a few scratches. The movement is working but is missing the minute handle.

Created: Tue, 4th September 2018 12:09