LOT 2105

A set of six 19th century mahogany dining chairs with pierced splat backs, the seats overstuffed in green leatherette, raised on square tapering legs united by stretchers, width 51cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

2105. Three of the chairs have badly damaged backs and all of them are quite worn with surface wear, scratches and scuffs but otherwise structurally ok with quite a lot of wear to the stretchers.
