

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 6th September 2018 / Lot 1093

LOT 1093

A late 20th century brass cased carriage clock with eight day movement striking and repeating on a gong, the backplate detailed 'Matthew Norman London 1751/A', the enamel dial with Roman numerals and inscribed 'Asprey', the glazed case with reeded columns and swing handle, on a plinth base, height 18.5cm, with Asprey cardboard box.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1093. A late 1970s mass produced carriage clock by Matthew Norman in working order. The only fault found is a non-original winding key of poor quality.

Created: Tue, 4th September 2018 14:01