

Art Pottery / Friday, 7th September 2018 / Lot 4101

LOT 4101

A Pilkington's Royal Lancastrian lustre vase, circa 1914-1923, by Richard Joyce, monogrammed, the stout body and flared neck decorated with stylized floral motifs framed by scrolling leaves against a green ground, impressed factory mark and '2148' and painted artist's monogram to base, height 13.4cm (restored).

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

4101. Professional restoration of a good standard to the rim with some overpainting. Otherwise body in good condition.

Created: Wed, 5th September 2018 16:27