

Art Pottery / Friday, 7th September 2018 / Lot 4104

LOT 4104

A Pilkington's Royal Lancastrian lustre vase, circa 1911, by William S. Mycock, monogrammed, the squat double gourd shaped body decorated with birds in flight framed by stylized trees against a blue ground, impressed factory mark and '2026' with painted artist's monogram to base, height 13.5cm (minor restoration to rim).

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

4104. The upper section of the vase, including the neck and a bit of the shoulder, have been professionally restored and overpainted. This has been done to a good standard.

Created: Wed, 5th September 2018 16:28