

Antiquities / Wed, 3rd October 2018 / Lot 784

LOT 784

A Gandhara 'Fasting Buddha' grey schist figure, circa 2nd-3rd century AD, finely carved seated in dhyanasana with emaciated torso and sunken stomach, the base worked with figures of monks praying, height 21cm, raised on a black rectangular plinth.

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

Condition Report

784. There is a repaired break to the roundel behind his head, a chipped edge to the front right corner of the base and a few minor chips. Overall fairly good order. Provenance: consigned by a local private collector.

Created: Wed, 26th September 2018 16:50