LOT 525

A gold, diamond and cultured pearl brooch of circular openwork form, mounted with the principal cultured pearl within a surround of eight cushion shaped diamonds, the three row border spaced with seed pearls, circa 1910, diameter 2.7cm.

Estimate: £350 - £450

Condition Report

525. The old cut diamonds look to be attractive clear stones. Some of the surrounding pearls are slightly turning grey but in overall good condition. The pin needs adjustment so that it will hold securely in place. There is slight variation of size of the diamonds. Weight 8.4g.
