

Prints and Maps / Wed, 3rd October 2018 / Lot 184

LOT 184

Pieter van der Keere - 'The Kingdome of England', 17th century engraving on laid paper with later hand-colouring, 8.5cm x 12cm, within an ebonized and gilt frame, together with eight further similar maps by the same hand.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

184. Generally okay. Some minor age-toning, with browning around edge mounts. All colouring is later. Minor undulations to paper. 'Middlesex' has remnants of adhesive tape along top edge and a spot of foxing to the bottom right corner. 'Surrey' colour has run throughout the image. All mounts are discolouring. Each is double-glazed and in modern frames with some scuffs and scratches.

Created: Thu, 27th September 2018 16:55