

Objects of Virtú / Friday, 5th October 2018 / Lot 2461

LOT 2461

A late Victorian gold, ivory and citrine seal, the terminal finely carved in the form of a hand clasping a serpent, the chased gold mount supporting a circular citrine engraved with the Victoria Cross, length 5cm. Note: this seal was purportedly presented to Pte Williams VC by members of the Army Hospital Corps in appreciation of Williams' gallant and heroic actions on 22nd and 23rd January 1879 at Rorke's Drift.

Estimate: £400 - £600

---

Condition Report

2461. Some very minor surface scratching to the edges of the citrine. There are a few very tiny nicks to the edges of the spiral carving below fist. Otherwise in good condition.

Created: Mon, 1st October 2018 09:29