LOT 2433

A late 19th/early 20th century Bohemian cut glass decanter and six matching glasses, together with a tray and a spill vase, all applied with gilt metal and Bohemian garnet set fittings, length of tray 23cm.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

2433. One very small garnet missing to the mount on one glass. One area on the rim of the tray appears to have been ground down, presumably to fit the mount. Otherwise a little dirty around the mounts on the tray.
