

Objects of Virtù / Friday, 5th October 2018 / Lot 2452

LOT 2452

A 19th century carved meerschaum cheroot holder, worked in high relief with a soldier between two yellow metal collars, one engraved 'A.M. from his brother C.M. 13th June 1874', fitted with an amber mouthpiece, cased (faults). Note: purportedly from the collection of Aleister Crowley.

Estimate: £50 - £70

2452. Apparently the cheroot holder had been acquired from the Crowley Collection from the vendor but there is no documentary evidence to support this.

Created: Tue, 2nd October 2018 08:55