LOT 2524

A mid-19th century mahogany and brass bound concertina-action folding fisherman's fly box, the lid inset with a recessed demi-lune handle, the interior fitted with four lidded compartments, width 24.5cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

2524. Some very minor loss to the two brass corner mounts on the rear lower corners. Hinges and main body in good overall condition. The interiors of the compartments are unlined and there are minor knocks and bumps to the edges of the removable lids, but generally in overall good condition.
