LOT 2821

An early 20th century Middle Eastern pink silk and gilt braided robe, length 133cm (faults), together with two Chinese silk gowns, both with floral embroidery.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2821. The front applied braiding to the Middle Eastern robe is in relatively good order and much of the woven silk is ok. However, there are quite a few areas of deterioration around neck, shoulders, inside sleeve panels, splits to shoulders, split to one armpit and around inside lining. Two areas of staining to back. Some holes and deterioration of silk to front. Inside lining is reasonable apart from around neck, shoulders, insides of sleeves and hem.
