LOT 2453

A 19th century turned ebony cased pocket compass, the screw-off lid revealing a domed glass enclosing a circular dial, inscribed 'T. Stalyni, London', diameter 5.5cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

2453. Approximately half of the turned thread is missing from the rim of the body around the glass, which means the lid will not really stay on the base. There is a very small chip to the edge of the base and some light orange staining to the surface of the dial.
