LOT 2820

An early 20th century Chinese ivory silk robe with floral embroidered decoration, another similar blue robe, a Chinese machine woven silk gown, a black silk robe and two Turkish silk kaftans.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

2820. The ivory/light green toned robed has an overall and fairly considerable brown staining. The armpit seam is loose and slightly torn on one arm. The side seam is also split and slightly torn on one side. The blue robe also has some light brown staining around the sleeve panels, but otherwise is in fair condition. The black robe has a few minor repairs but other in fair condition. The two silk kaftans have some wear to the hems, the red and purple striped example has two small tears to the reverse. The Chinese woven silk coat is in used but generally good order.
