LOT 689

A gold, silver, ruby and diamond cluster ring, detailed '750', ring size approx N1/2, and a pair of ruby and diamond cluster earrings in a matching design, with post and folding bar fittings.

Estimate: £300 - £400

Condition Report

689. The diamonds are rather crude flat cut stones with internal inclusions and are drawing colour to grey. The rubies are of pale colour saturation and some rubies have one or two inclusions, some of which are reaching the surfaces of the stones. These pieces are modern interpretations of earlier designs. Ring only - weight 9g.
