

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4027

LOT 4027

A Chinese famille verte porcelain saucer dish, Kangxi period, enamelled with a design of four leaf shaped panels containing a maiden seated or standing in a terraced garden, reserved against a green ground, divided by iron red stylized buds, all centred by a cruciform motif with four blue glazed leaves, the underside with six ribboned precious emblems, underglaze blue lotus mark and double ring to base, diameter 28.5cm (hairline and minor repair to rim). Note: a similar pair of dishes was sold by Christie's, London, 17th June 2003, Lot 128, from the Hon. Mrs Nellie Ionides Collections.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

4027. Overall in good condition. 5.5cm hairline crack to rim and small filled shallow chip to underside of rim approx 1.2 by 0.3cm with another similar approx 1.3 by 0.4cm. Typical light surface wear and scratches to enamels.

Created: Fri, 2nd November 2018 21:51