

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4051

LOT 4051

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain bottle vase, Yongzheng period, the globular body enamelled with opposing cockerels perched upon a rock amidst peonies, the slightly flared neck with further peonies above a lappet collar, unmarked, height 24cm (chip to rim and crack to neck).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

4051. U-shaped crack to rim running approx 4cm down into the neck with a 0.8 by 0.9cm chip to source of crack at rim. Otherwise in good condition, no further chips, cracks or restoration. Typical light wear to enamels.

Created: Fri, 2nd November 2018 22:00