

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4053

LOT 4053

A set of three Chinese famille rose café-au-lait ground export porcelain plates, Qianlong period, each painted with foliate, scroll, leaf and butterfly shaped panels filled with flowers, diameter 22.5cm (hairlines).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

4053. Dish one - 5cm hairline crack to rim and some staking wear to enamels and brown ground.

Dish two - radiating starcrack to base within foot rim, minor wear to enamels and staking wear to brown ground.

Dish three - starcrack to base within footrim, otherwise in good condition with minor wear to enamels and staking wear to brown ground.

Created: Fri, 2nd November 2018 22:03