

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4055

LOT 4055

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain teapot and cover, Yongzheng period, the ovoid body enamelled with peonies and rocks above a panelled band of further flowers, height 11cm (finial re-glued and minor chip to spout).

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

4055. 2.5cm hairline crack to rim and small chip to tip of spout, otherwise body in good condition. Cover has a broken and re-glued finial. Enamels bright and vibrant.

Created: Fri, 2nd November 2018 22:05