

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4061

LOT 4061

A set of eighteen Chinese famille rose export porcelain octagonal plates, Yongzheng period, each painted with a cockerel and two chicks pecking about a blossoming branch, rocks and peonies, the rim filled with pink trellis panels and scattered flowers, width 21cm (some faults).

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

Condition Report

4061. All with typical minor rim chips/fritting and typical minor wear to enamels to varying degrees.

9 with no cracks, chips or restoration.

2 with large starcracks to base visible from surface and underneath.

4 with hairlines to rim ranging from 4 to 5.5cm in length.

3 with very minor glaze hairlines to underside none of which visible to surface.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:02