

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4082

LOT 4082

A Chinese famille rose enamelled export porcelain stand, Qing dynasty, modelled as an iron red dragon fish emerging through green and white waves, the top moulded and pierced with five apertures, length 25cm (some faults).

Estimate: £100 - £200

---

Condition Report

4082. Ears and horns chipped, right eyebrow chipped, one of front fangs chipped. Other minor chips to edges of apertures and waves, central aperture with slightly more significant losses/chips, but otherwise in good condition with no apparent cracks or restoration. The enamels and gilding remain vibrant and good.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:14