

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4090

LOT 4090

A set of nine Chinese famille rose export porcelain plates, Yongzheng period, each enamelled with a cockerel perched on a blue rock amidst pink peonies, within a rim of four peony and chrysanthemum sprays, diameter 23.1cm (two with minor rim chips). Note: similar cockerel designs on Yongzheng porcelain are illustrated by Williamson and Tuttle in 'The Book of Famille Rose', 1970, plates III, IV and V.

Estimate: £600 - £900

Condition Report

4090. Overall in good condition with nice vibrant and fresh enamels and gilding with only very minor wear. 6 with no chips, cracks or restoration. 3 with very minor rim chips.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:17