

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4101

LOT 4101

A collection of Chinese blue and white export porcelain, Kangxi period, including a circular box and cover, the top and sides painted with figures, diameter 9.7cm, a small circular dish, painted with a seated maiden and attendant boy, underglaze blue four character mark of Chenghua to base, diameter 10.1cm, six various wine cups, painted with maidens, boys, rocks and precious objects, underglaze blue four character mark of Chenghua to bases, heights 3.9cm and 4.1cm, three jars and covers, a tea bowl, wine cups and saucers (some faults).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

4101. Circular box and cover with figures - small chip to rim, otherwise in good condition with some typical surface scratches and minor discolouration/surface staining to top.

Small circular dish - 2 minor chips to rim, otherwise in good condition.

7 various wine cups - 6 with very minor rim chips, otherwise in good condition, the other with 2 hairlines to rim.

Moulded wine cup - minor chips/fritting to rim.

Teabowl - minor chips/fritting to rim and footrim.

4 saucers - 3 with hairline cracks and rim chips, larger with minor chips/fritting to rim.

Large jar and cover - approx 9.5cm hairline crack running horizontally just above footrim, otherwise in good condition.

Similar smaller jar and cover - minor chip to rim, otherwise in good condition.

Landscape jar and cover - numerous chips to rim.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:27