

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4133

LOT 4133

A Chinese white glazed figure of Li Tieguai, late Qing dynasty, the immortal modelled holding a crutch and double gourd bottle on a rocky base, height 31cm, together with a Chinese white glazed porcelain candle holder, Qing dynasty, modelled with a coiled dragon holding the scone between a pair of immortals, each standing on the head of a carp, height 13.2cm (chips and losses).

Estimate: £100 - £200

---

Condition Report

4133. Li Tieguai - tiny chip to rim of vase held in removable left hand but overall in generally good condition. Light overall crazing.

Candle Holder - chips and losses to dragon head including ears, horns and tongue, also missing one claw. Both acolytes with missing attributes and chip to headdress of one.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:38