

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4134

LOT 4134

A Chinese sancai glazed biscuit porcelain Buddhistic lion jostick holder, Kangxi period, modelled seated on a pierced rectangular plinth, height 20cm (faults), together with an aubergine glazed pottery figure of a kylin, 19th century, modelled in a seated pose, height 19.8cm (restoration to tail and ear).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

4134. Sancai glazed holder - chips to end of one ear, small area of re-painting behind other ear, other minor chips to edges, but otherwise generally in good order. Missing brocade ball and articulated eyes.

Kylin - restoration to tail and right ear/horn, otherwise in good condition overall with no chips or cracks.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:39