

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4143

LOT 4143

A Chinese famille verte export porcelain domed lid, Kangxi period, painted with a pheasant perched on rocks beside a blossoming branch, birds and peonies, diameter 26cm, together with a small group of seven other famille verte export porcelain lids and sixteen other export porcelain lids (24 in total).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

4143. Famille verte circular cover - minor rim chips/fritting, wear to enamels and significant losses to blue enamel.

Famille verte domed cover with boys - diameter 16.5cm, good condition, some wear to enamels.

Pair hexagonal covers - width 13cm, good condition with minor fritting to rims and some wear to enamels.

Pair circular covers famille verte - diameter 9cm, one in good condition, the other with chips and hairlines to rim.

The remaining covers in mixed condition but most with minor chips or wear.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:42