

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4147

LOT 4147

A Chinese watercolour painting on silk, late Qing dynasty, depicting a lady and her maid carrying her guqin and books, two lines of black text and red seal to upper right corner, 64cm x 22.5cm, together with two other Chinese watercolours, 20th century, of a prunus branch and chrysanthemum, all framed and glazed.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

4147. Lady and maid - in generally good condition, some all over brown staining but no significant damage or repairs.

Prunus branch - in good condition with some light staining.

Chrysanthemum - generally in good condition but some very light staining and spotting near to base.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:43