

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4150

LOT 4150

A fine Chinese export reverse mirror glass painting, Qianlong period, exceptionally well painted with a lady seated on a rock seat, beside a lotus pond with conjugal pairs of pheasants, mandarin ducks and chickens, a pleasure barge on the water beyond before an opulent residence on the far shore, 58cm x 77.5cm, within a carved and pierced rococo scroll openwork giltwood frame.

Estimate: £30,000 - £50,000

Condition Report

4150. In generally very good condition with good vibrant colours and no chips, cracks or restoration. The mirrored ground with some areas of hazing, all visible in our images available in the catalogue and online. A few minor marks. Frame also in good condition with some very minor chips.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:44