

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4162

LOT 4162

A Japanese Imari porcelain bottle vase, early 18th century, the globular body painted with three panels of the three friends of winter (pine, prunus and bamboo) and other flowers emanating from rockwork, beneath a narrow neck with iron red and gilt scroll decoration, height 22.5cm (hairline crack to body).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

4162. Hairline crack to body and overall crazing, otherwise in good condition with good vibrant colours. Typical light wear to enamels and gilding.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:49