

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4174

LOT 4174

Three pieces of Italian Cozzi porcelain, circa 1760, comprising a leaf shaped dish with stalk handle, a shell shaped dish and a circular stand, decorated in Imari colours with a Kakiemon style pattern heightened with gilding, each with iron red painted anchor mark to base, lengths of two dishes 19.5cm and 18.7cm, diameter of stand 11.7cm. Note: examples decorated with the same pattern were sold at Bonhams, London, 7th December 2011, Lot 31.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

4174. Each piece in good condition overall, no cracks, chips or restoration. Enamels and gilding in good order with very minimal wear.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:52