LOT 4178

A Staffordshire porcelain honey pot and cover, early 19th century, modelled in the form of a skep with chinoiserie style iron red and cobalt blue painted decoration, raised on an integral stand, unmarked, height 12cm (minor faults), together with a Staffordshire porcelain figure of a fruit seller, height 13.5cm, and a Spode porcelain cobalt blue and gilt pattern '3291' basket, red painted mark to base, height 14.5cm (lacking cover).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

4178. Honey pot - no cracks or restoration. Overall pitting to glaze - a manufacturing issue. Small chip to top rim edge of base and to inner rim edge of cover. Blue enamel decoration flaked overall apart from rim edge and finial.

Fruit seller - tiny chip to right side of base edge otherwise in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration. Gilding remains good and bright, not worn.

Basket - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Probably lacking a cover. Very minor rubbing to gilding.
