

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4189

LOT 4189

A near pair of Dutch Delft vases, late 18th/early 19th century, each of high shouldered form, painted in blue with exotic birds flying and perched amidst flowering rockwork, one with a zig-zag fence, one painted '18' to base, heights 36cm and 35cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

4189. Both vases in good condition overall. The one marked '18' to base with approx 2cm long by 1cm wide chip to neck rim exterior. The other vase has 2 smaller chips and some fritting to the neck rim exterior with an approx 3cm long vertical glaze hairline and some very minor typical glaze fritting to the footrim.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:55