

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4196

LOT 4196

A Continental faience jug, probably Gmunden, Austria, dated '1760' but late 19th century, polychrome painted to one side with fish and a lobster, to the reverse three entwined fish, against a dense flowerhead ground between foliate and geometric borders, marked beneath the upper handle terminal 'G.1760' with 'TS' monogram, height 27.5cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

4196. Minor glaze chip to edge of foot. Haircrack to middle of handle. 2 indistinct vertical hairlines to neck amidst manufacturer's glaze crazing. Good bright enamels with no real wear.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 12:57