

Single-Owner Collections / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 4198

LOT 4198

A St. Louis concentric millefiori mushroom paperweight, circa 1850, the central tuft comprising seven rows of canes with a central star, surrounded by a spiralling coral pink and white latticino torsade above the star cut base, diameter 8cm (tiny chip to base edge, minor scratches). Note: an example of similar date was sold at Sotheby's, Olympia, as part of the Britiste Collection, 17th December 2003, Lot 232.

Estimate: £300 - £500

---

Condition Report

4198. Two tiny chips and a minor nick to footrim. Overall a number of tiny digs and light surface scratches. One very minor spot of possible polishing to side of dome.

Created: Sat, 3rd November 2018 13:16