

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 1066

LOT 1066

A rare Chinese famille verte enameled biscuit porcelain figure group of two musicians, Kangxi period, modelled standing side by side, one wearing a long green robe, the other an aubergine short coat with green and yellow detail, on a rectangular plinth base, height 15.2cm (repaired).

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

1066. Figure wearing the aubergine coat - head has been broken and re-glued with no apparent losses. The stick he would have been holding in his right hand is missing, and some minor restoration/overpainting to this hand.

Other figure - missing the tip of the stick in left hand.

Both figures have been broken off at feet level from the base and have been reattached with professional restoration. Few very minor nicks/chips to edges of base.

Created: Fri, 23rd November 2018 10:30