LOT 1239

A Chinese brown patinated bronze duck-form censer, late Ming dynasty/Qing dynasty, the detachable cover forming the wings with engraved plumage, height 14.5cm, together with a Chinese hardwood two-tier stand, length 24.5cm, a Japanese Kutani vase and a Japanese bronze fish (all with faults).

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1239. Bronze duck - left foot with two broken and missing toes, right foot with broken and missing toe and a repaired toe. Otherwise the duck is in generally good order with only tip of one wing broken off.

Japanese fish - not particularly good quality and some surface wear.

Hardwood stand - missing sections of pierced apron to both tiers, structurally the stand is in good order with both platforms and legs in good condition.

Kutani vase - small chip to rim, otherwise good condition. Minor wear to gilt.
