

Silver and Plate / Wed, 28th November 2018 / Lot 319

LOT 319

A late 19th century French silver gilt and cut glass claret jug, the tapering neck, spout and hinged lid decorated with borders of leaves and a shield shaped cartouche, flanked by a twin ribbon and reeded handle, the globular body with star cut decoration, on a circular foot, by Emile Puiforcat, height 23cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

319. The cut glass body has numerous tiny chips to the high points. Otherwise no cracks or repairs. Silver gilt has typical light wear, but is in generally good condition with no repairs or damage.

Created: Sat, 24th November 2018 09:59