

Silver and Plate / Wed, 28th November 2018 / Lot 332

LOT 332

A Queen Anne silver caster of baluster form with pierced domed lid and knob finial, on a circular stepped foot, London 1706 by Thomas Farren, height 20cm.

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

---

Condition Report

332. Overall good condition. No significant damage or repairs. Hallmarks to side of body are a little rubbed but still perfectly readable. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Very minor misshaping to the foot. Few small dents to domed cover. Cover fits nice and tightly. Weight 333g.

Created: Sat, 24th November 2018 10:06