

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 1150

LOT 1150

A Chinese rectangular jade table screen, probably 20th century, of pale celadon tone, one side carved in relief with two figures walking through a mountainous landscape with pine trees, clouds and crane flying above, the other side with a scholar and two attendants in a similar landscape, 22cm x 15.2cm (small chip to lower corner), on a slotted hardwood stand with inlaid wire archaistic scroll borders, framing carved and pierced boxwood panels of prunus, total height 36cm.

Estimate: £7,000 - £9,000

---

Condition Report

1150. Plaque generally in good condition overall with some very minor and indistinct roughness to base edge. Small typical internal flaw running horizontally to edge of plaque approx 1/3 down one side. Stand in good condition.

Created: Mon, 26th November 2018 09:13