

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wed, 28th November 2018 / Lot 756

LOT 756

A French model AN XIII heavy cavalry sword with straight single-edged double-fullered blade, blade length 97.5cm, brass triple-bar hilt, leather-covered wire-bound grip, with steel scabbard and associated knot.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

756. No dents to scabbard, but heavily pitted in the past and cleaned. Blade is slightly out of shape in two places. No numbers or details on scabbard. No writing on back of blade. Grip wires intact.

Created: Mon, 26th November 2018 15:57