

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 1004

LOT 1004

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain tea caddy, Qianlong period, of rectangular shape with rounded shoulders, each side painted with two horses and two dogs before rockwork, flanked by trees, the shoulders with floral panels against a pink dotted trellis ground, fitted with a metal mounted cork stopper, height 13cm.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1004. Minor glaze frit to top of neck rim. Small firing crack to each base edge, otherwise in good condition overall. Minor typical wear.

Created: Mon, 26th November 2018 16:36