

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 1086

LOT 1086

A Chinese bone and bamboo mah jong set, late Qing dynasty, comprising one hundred and forty inscribed tiles and eight blank tiles, within a lacquered hardwood five-drawer case, the sides and sliding front decorated with polychrome cranes, flowers and scrolls, height 16.5cm (sliding front missing section), together with a Canton export lacquer tea caddy and another Chinese lacquer box with hinged lid (faults).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1086. Mahjong set - box quite worn with splits to back panel and losses to veneer along front edge of cover which is missing bottom section. Joints loose.

Other two boxes in poor condition overall.

Created: Mon, 26th November 2018 16:43