

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Friday, 30th November 2018 / Lot 2670

LOT 2670

An early 18th century English brass circular salver with a scalloped rim and engraved crest, raised on three scroll feet, bearing indistinct touch marks, diameter 21cm, together with an early 18th century brass kettle-on-heater stand bearing the same engraved crest, height 30cm (lacking heater).

Estimate: £100 - £200

---

Condition Report

2670. The salver has some overall light wear but is generally quite good. The kettle has some slightly weak points to the body including a small crack just below the handle.

Created: Mon, 26th November 2018 18:34