

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 1276

LOT 1276

A Chinese Hor-Chung Weihaiwei pewter mounted black stoneware four-piece tea set, early 20th century, pierced and engraved with dragons, comprising teapot and cover, hot water pot and cover, milk jug and cover, and sugar bowl and cover (sugar bowl handle repaired).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1276. Teapot - pewter spout is bent and misshapen, also some other lifting and wear to pewter overlay.

Stoneware in good order.

Taller jug - good condition, some wear and minor lifting to pewter. Stoneware in good order.

Small jug - handle repaired and some wear to pewter.

Sugar - one handle repaired and some wear to pewter.

Created: Tue, 27th November 2018 11:18