

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 1167

LOT 1167

A Chinese Canton famille rose porcelain hexagonal planter and stand, mid-19th century, the planter painted with a continuous scene of numerous figures in a street setting, the interior of the stand with scattered butterflies, fruit and flowers, the rims of each with butterflies and flowers against a gilt ground, height of planter 16cm (faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1167. One facet of the rim has a 6.5cm x 1cm section broken from it and missing. Otherwise jardinière in fair condition but does have wear to enamels and gilt. Water staining around feet and is a bit dirty. The stand has an 8cm x 1.5cm section of rim missing and another chip to the rim and some wear to enamels and gilt.

Created: Tue, 27th November 2018 12:02