

Silver and Plate / Wed, 28th November 2018 / Lot 309

LOT 309

A late 17th century Dutch silver spoon with scroll terminal, the bowl back with engraved inscription and dated '1672', length 17.2cm, together with three other Dutch silver spoons (some faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

309. Horseshoe finial spoon - fairly good condition, typical minor surface wear and scratches. Slight kink to bowl near handle.

Pump finial Rembrandt spoon - slight bend to end of bowl, otherwise good.

Scroll finial spoon - bowl badly misshapen and split, typical wear.

Flat finial - repair where bowl meets stem, typical wear and kink to bowl.

Total weight 184g.

Created: Tue, 27th November 2018 15:48